ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE

1.1 Purpose of Agreement

The purpose of this agreement is to provide orderly collective bargaining between the Employer and the Association of Unions. Both the Employer and the Association of Unions agree that it is in the best interest of both parties to cooperate fully, individually and collectively with one another and thereby agree to abide by the terms set out in this agreement.

The parties to this agreement share a desire to improve the quality of the services provided by the Employer. Accordingly, they are determined to establish, within the framework provided by the law, an effective working relationship at all levels in which members of the bargaining unit are employed.

1.2 Future Legislation

In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this agreement, the remaining provisions will remain in effect for the term of the agreement, and the parties hereto will negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered. If agreement is not reached the matter will be sent to arbitration as provided in Article 10 (Arbitration).

1.3 Conflict with Regulations

In the event that there is a conflict between the contents of the agreement and any regulation made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this agreement will take precedence over the said regulation.

The masculine or feminine gender may be used interchangeably throughout this agreement. Wherever one gender is used it will be construed as meaning the other if the facts or context so require.

(b) Singular or Plural

Notwithstanding the above, the parties accept that Aboriginal agencies are entitled, by virtue of Section 41 of the Human Rights Code, to give preference to Aboriginal peoples, and as such will not be restricted by any clause or article contained in the collective agreement in hiring, retaining, promoting, or advancing of Aboriginal individuals.

ARTICLE 5 - CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

The Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct from the gross salary of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.

The Employer will deduct from the gross salary of an employee who is a member of the Union any assessments levied in accordance with the Union Constitution and/or Bylaws and owing by the employee to the Union.

Deductions will be made in each payroll period of each month and membership dues or payments in lieu thereof will be considered as owing in the month for which they are so deducted. All deductions will be remitted to the Union not later than 28 days after the date of deduction and the Employer will also provide a list of names of those employees from whose salaries such deductions have been made, together with the amounts deducted from each employee.

Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under this article, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular monthly dues or assessments. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount will be the amount deducted.

From the date of the signing of this agreement and for its duration, no employee organization other than the Union will be permitted to have membership dues or other monies deducted by the Employer from the pay of the employees in the bargaining unit.

The Employer will supply each employee, without charge, a T4 receipt for income tax purposes in the amount of the deductions paid to the Union by the employee in the previous year. Such receipts will be provided to the employee prior to March 1st of the succeeding year.

The Employer will notify the steward of new employees and of their primary work location within 10 days of the start date of the new employee. The Employer agrees that a union steward will be given an opportunity to interview each new employee within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for 30 minutes sometime during the first 30 days of employment for the purpose of acquainting the new employee with the benefits and duties of union membership and the employee's responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 8 - EMPLOYER/UNION RELATIONS

8.1 Representation

No employee or group of employees will undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without the proper authorization of the Union. To implement this, the Union will supply the Employer with the names of its officers and similarly, the Employer will supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

8.2 Union Representatives

The Employer agrees that access to its premises will be granted to representatives of the Union when dealing or negotiating with the Employer, as well as for the purpose of investigating and assisting in the settlement of a grievance or other union-related business. Representatives of the Union will notify the designated Employer's official in advance of their intention and their purpose for entering and will not interfere with the operation of the department or section concerned. Where available, the Employer will make available to union representatives or stewards, temporary use of an office or similar facility to facilitate the orderly and confidential investigation of grievances.

8.3 Labour Management Committee

(a) There will be established a Labour/Management Committee composed of two union representatives and two employer representatives. The parties may mutually agree to increase the size of the Committee up to a maximum of four union representatives and four employer representatives. This Committee may call upon additional persons for technical information or advice. The Committee may establish subcommittees or "ad-hoc" committees as it deems necessary and will set guidelines and operating procedures for such committees.

Where warranted, and where an Employer has locations in more than one geographic area, a separate Labour/Management Committee may be established for each of those geographic areas (see definition below)¹.

(b) The Committee will meet at least once every 60 days or at the call of either party at a mutually agreeable time and place. Employees who attend meetings of the Committee as representatives of the Union shall be compensated with straight-time pay. Compensation at straight-time pay for work outside the Committee members' regular working hours is limited to a combined total of 24 hours per year.

(c) An employer representative and a union representative will alternate in presiding over meetings. Minutes of each meeting of the Committee will be prepared by the Employer and approved by an employer and union designate who were in attendance at the meeting. Once approved, the minutes will be distributed to the Union and the Employer within three working days.

(d) The Committee will not have jurisdiction over wages or any other matter of collective bargaining, including the administration of this agreement. The Committee will not supersede the activities of any other committee of the Union or of the Employer and will not have the power to bind either the Union or its members or the Employer to any decisions or conclusions reached in their discussions.

(e) The Committee will have the power to make recommendations to the Union and the Employer on the following general matters:

- (1) reviewing matters, other than grievances, relating to the maintenance of good relations between the parties;
- (2) correcting conditions causing grievances and misunderstanding.

8.4 Technical Information

(a) The Employer agrees to provide to the Union such information as is available relating to employees in the bargaining unit, as may be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.

(b) In January of each year the Employer will provide to the Union a list of all employees in the bargaining unit, their job titles, addresses and their phone numbers.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCES

9.1 Grievance Procedure

The Employer and the Union agree that disputes arising from:

- (a) the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the agreement, including all Memoranda, Letters and Addenda attached to the collective agreement including the question of arbitrability; or
- (b) the dismissal, suspension or discipline of any employee in the bargaining unit; will be resolved in accordance with the following procedures.

9.2 Step 1

In the first step of the grievance procedure, every effort will be made to settle the dispute with the designated local supervisor. The aggrieved employee will have the right to have a steward present at such a discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure. When the aggrieved employee is a steward, she will not, where possible, act as a steward in respect of her own grievance, but will submit the grievance through another steward or union staff representative.

9.3 Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Article 9.4 (Step 2), must do so not later than 30 days after the date:

- (a) on which she was notified orally or in writing of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance; or
- (b) on which she first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

9.4 Step 2

(a) Subject to the time limits in Article 9.3 (Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance), the employee may present a grievance at this level by:

- (1) recording the grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
- (2) stating the article or articles of the agreement violated or alleged to have been violated, and the remedy or correction required; and
- (3) transmitting this grievance to the designated local supervisor through the union steward.

(b) The local supervisor will:

- (1) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at Step 2; and
- (2) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

9.5 Time Limit to Reply to Step 2

(a) Within 10 days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the representative of the Employer, the employee and the steward will meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. The steward and the representative of the Employer will fill out a "shared fact sheet" [see Information Appendix H (Shared Fact Sheet)] listing an agreed statement of facts. The "shared fact sheet" is on a "without prejudice" basis and will not be referred to by either party in any third party proceedings.

(b) An employee, with the mutual consent of the Employer may have her grievance heard through an Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process. The parties recognize there are a number of resolution processes that are unique to Aboriginal cultures. As such, the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process is not limited to a single process. Recommendations to resolve the difference, made through the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process are, without prejudice. As part of the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process the parties, including the Union, will be notified of the outcome. Where the recommendations are unacceptable, either party may then advance the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure. Time limits will be extended by the time taken through the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process to make written recommendations to resolve the difference. The parties agree that the hearing of the grievance through an Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process shall take place with 30 days of the request.

It is understood that the employee has the right to have union representation involved in this process.

(c) The Employer's designate at Step 2 will reply in writing to the Union within 14 days of receiving the grievance at Step 2.

9.6 Aboriginal Alternate Dispute Resolution Process

The Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process is a flexible, inclusive process intended to facilitate the peaceful, respectful resolution of disagreements between parties to this collective agreement. It is intended to be a guiding process to assist people with relating in harmony. For example, the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process could include an Elder's council or peacemaking circle.

Where parties have been unable to come to an agreement in respect to the interpretation, application, implementation or operation of this agreement, the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process may be commenced at any one of the steps of the grievance procedure by mutual agreement of the parties. The parties recognize there are a number of resolution processes that are unique to Aboriginal cultures. As such, the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process is not limited to a single process. The process may consist of participation of the parties in a resolution circle intended to foster trust, honesty, respect, equality and consensus. Participants in the circle will be chosen in each individual case, by each party, based on the individual's ability to assist in the resolution process and may include external cultural support. (See Information Appendix G for more information).

As with arbitrations, each party will pay one-half of the costs associated with the Aboriginal alternate dispute resolution process.

9.7 Step 3

The President of the Union, or her designate, may present a grievance at Step 3:

- (a) within 14 days after the reply has been conveyed to her by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2; or
- (b) within 14 days after the Employer's reply was due.

9.8 Time Limit to Reply to Step 3

The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 3 will reply in writing to the grievance within 30 days of receipt of the grievance at Step 3.

9.9 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

- (a) Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 10 (Arbitration), the President, or her designate, may inform the Employer of her intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:
 - (1) 30 days after the Employer's reply at Step 3 has been received; or
 - (2) 30 days after the Employer's reply was due.
- (b) Once the Employer has been informed of the intention to submit the dispute to arbitration, the parties will exchange particulars and documents that have not already been provided. Where either party believes a document is confidential or private in nature, that party may withhold the document, or produce it subject to mutually-agreed conditions. A good-faith failure to identify and produce a relevant document at this stage does not prejudice a party's subsequent conduct of its case. Nothing in this article precludes a party from obtaining a disclosure order from an appointed arbitrator.

9.10 Failure to Act

If the President of the Union, or designate, does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, or six months passes from the time the Union President, or designate informed the Employer of her intention to submit a dispute to arbitration, the Employer may enquire, in writing, by priority courier, as to the status of the grievance. If, within 30 days of receipt of such letter, the Union has not advanced the grievance to the next step or submitted the grievance to arbitration, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. However, the Union will not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

9.11 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing. Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail it will be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it will be deemed to be received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union. Grievances and replies at Step 3 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate will be by priority courier or facsimile.

9.12 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, the grievance may be filed directly at arbitration within 30 days of the date on which the dismissal occurred, or within 30 days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal.
- (b) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 2 or 3 of the grievance procedure within 30 days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within 30 days of the employee receiving notice of suspension.

9.13 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representative will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly, with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union.
- (b) In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance will be considered to have been abandoned.
- (c) Notwithstanding (b) above, an employee who has filed a complaint with the Human Rights Tribunal, unrelated to harassment, will not have their grievance deemed abandoned through the filing of the complaint.

9.14 Policy Grievance

Where either party disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute will be discussed initially with the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, within 30 days of the occurrence.

Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 10 (Arbitration).

9.15 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties of this agreement that no grievance will be defeated merely because of a technical error, other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitration board will have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

9.16 Management Grievance

The Employer may initiate a grievance at Step 3 of the grievance procedure by the Employer or designate presenting the grievance to the President of the Union or designate. Time limits and process are identical to a union grievance.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

10.1 Notification

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, or administration of this agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in Article 9 (Grievances), notify the other party within 30 days of the receipt of the reply at the third step, that the grievance is to be submitted to arbitration. Such notice will be by priority courier or by facsimile.

10.2 Appointment of the Arbitrator

Where a party has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, an arbitrator will be selected from the agreed upon list outlined in Appendix B (List of Arbitrators). The individuals will be appointed in rotation unless they are unable to schedule the hearing within 60 days in which case the next individual on the list will be appointed. Where the parties mutually agree, an arbitrator who is not listed in Appendix B (List of Arbitrators) may be appointed.

Appendix B may be amended by mutual agreement to allow for Aboriginal arbitrators.

10.3 Board Procedure

The Arbitrator may determine her own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code and will give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. She will hear and determine the difference or allegation and will make every effort to render a decision within 30 days of her first meeting.

10.4 Decision of Arbitrator

The decision of the Arbitrator will be final, binding and enforceable on the parties. The Arbitrator will have the power to dispose of a dismissal, discharge or discipline grievance by any arrangement which she deems just and equitable. However, the Arbitrator will not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.

10.5 Disagreement on Decision

Should either party disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision. The Arbitrator will make every effort to provide written clarification within seven days of receipt of the application.

10.6 Expenses of Arbitrator

Each party will pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

10.7 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties but the same must be in writing.

10.8 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses. All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the concerned parties or the Arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

10.9 Expedited Arbitration

- (a) The parties may meet, to review outstanding grievances filed at arbitration to determine those grievances suitable for this process, and will set dates and locations for hearings of groups of grievances considered suitable for expedited arbitration.
- (b) All grievances will be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:
- (1) dismissals;
 - (2) rejection on probation;
 - (3) suspensions in excess of 20 workdays;
 - (4) policy grievances;
 - (5) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the collective agreement;
 - (6) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
 - (7) grievances where a party intends to raise a preliminary objection;
 - (8) demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

(c) The parties will mutually agree upon single arbitrators who will be appointed to hear and resolve groups of grievances. See Appendix B for the list of arbitrators approved to hear expedited arbitrations.

(d) The Arbitrator will hear the grievances and will render a decision within two working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision will be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

(e) Expedited arbitration awards will be of no precedential value and will not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.

(f) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing will be without prejudice.

(g) A grievance determined by either party to fall within one of the categories listed in (b) above, may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitration hearing pursuant to Article 10.2 (Appointment of the Arbitrator).

(h) The parties will equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing rooms.

ARTICLE 11 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

11.1 Procedure

In the event that the Employer initiates disciplinary action against an employee, that may result in her suspension or discharge, the procedure outlined herein will be followed.

11.2 Dismissal and Suspension

(a) The Employer may dismiss or suspend for just cause any employee who has completed her probationary period. Notice of dismissal or suspension will be in writing and will set forth the reasons for dismissal or suspension and an employee will have the right to have a steward present, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. A copy of the written notice of suspension or dismissal will be forwarded to the President of the Union or the designated staff representative within five working days.

(b) A suspension of indefinite duration will be considered a dismissal under 11.2(a) above as soon as it exceeds 20 days and any grievance already filed will be considered henceforth as a dismissal grievance.

11.3 Burden of Proof

In all cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just cause will rest with the Employer.

11.4 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

(a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee will include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports or employee appraisals.

(b) An employee will be given a copy of any document, report, incident, or notation placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action.

(c) Should an employee dispute any such entry in her file, she will be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof will become part of her personnel record.

(d) Any such document, other than official evaluation reports, will be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of 18 months from the date it was issued provided there has not been a further infraction.

(e) The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing.

11.5 Personnel File

(a) An employee, or the President of the Union or her designate, with written authority of the employee, will be entitled to review an employee's personnel file, exclusive of employee references. The file will be reviewed at the employee's worksite or, where it is not possible, the file will be made available for review at a mutually agreed location. A designated management representative may be in attendance at this review. The Employer will provide copies of file entries as requested. The Employer may require up to five working days' notice prior to giving access to such information.

(b) Personnel files will be kept confidential and access will be given only to those supervisory personnel that require the information in the course of their duties.

11.6 Right to Have Union Representative Present

(a) An employee will have the right to have a steward present at any interview with supervisory personnel, which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor will notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact a steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the interview. This clause will not apply to those interviews that are of an operational nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

(b) A steward will have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local union representative present at any interview with supervisory personnel which might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the interview.

- (c) An employee has the right to select the steward she wishes to represent her providing that this does not result in an undue delay.

11.7 Abandonment of Position

An employee who fails to report for duty for three consecutive working days without informing the Employer of the reason for her absence will be presumed to have abandoned her position. An employee will be afforded the opportunity within 10 days to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there were reasonable grounds for not informing the Employer.

11.8 Probation

- (a) The Employer may reject a probationary employee for just cause. The Employer will provide the reasons for the rejection in writing. A rejection during probation will not be considered a dismissal for the purpose of Article 11.2 (Dismissal and Suspension) of this agreement. The test of just cause for rejection will be a test of suitability of the probationary employee for continued employment in the position to which she has been appointed, provided that the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.
- (b) The probationary period for supervisory employees and professional employees (registrants of a regulatory body) will be six months worked or the equivalent number of hours worked as based on the normal hours of work of a full-time employee, whichever occurs last. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the probationary period will not exceed nine calendar months.
- (c) The probationary period for all other employees will be three months worked or the equivalent number of hours worked as based on the normal hours of work of a full-time employee, whichever occurs last. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the probationary period will not exceed six calendar months.

- (f) The probationary period for employees who perform delegated functions will be six months worked or the equivalent number of hours worked or the equivalent number of hours worked as based on the normal hours of work of a full-time employee, whichever occurs last.

11.9 Employee Investigations

- (a) The parties agree that in certain situations it may be in the best interest of both clients and employees that employees be reassigned or removed from all job sites during an investigation of conduct. In cases where an employee cannot be reassigned, then the employee will be considered to be on leave of absence without loss of pay until the Employer has determined there is a prima facie case for imposing discipline.
- (b) The Employer will make every effort to complete its investigation within 14 days. The Employer will provide the Union with a summary of the investigation report. This summary sheet is on a "without prejudice" basis and will not be referred to by either party in any third party proceedings.
- (c) The Employer will notify the union designate when an investigation of conduct has been initiated. Any employee who is interviewed in the course of an investigation will have the right to union representation at such an interview.

ARTICLE 12 - SENIORITY12.1 Seniority Defined

- (a) Seniority includes employment with the Employer prior to certification and will be as follows:
- (1) Regular full-time employees will have a seniority date, which includes all seniority as a regular part-time employee and as a casual employee and will include all absences for which seniority continues to accumulate.
 - (2) Regular part-time employees will accrue seniority based on all hours paid.
 - (3) Casual employees will accrue seniority on an hourly basis for all hours paid.
 - (4) For the purpose of part-time and casual seniority, seniority will be credited as all hours paid for and will include all absences for which seniority continues to accumulate.
 - (5) Upon achieving regular full-time employee status, a part-time or a casual employee will have their hourly seniority converted to a seniority date. The resulting date will be deemed to be the employee's seniority date.
 - (6) Regular full-time employees who are returned to either part-time or casual status will have their seniority converted to hours.
- (b) Notwithstanding the above, each Employer, at the time of ratification, excluding those certifications in Memorandum of Agreement #3 (Re: Existing New Certifications, Future Certifications and Variances) identified as new certifications, will maintain the current system of calculating seniority. Where an Employer has two or more unions representing employees with different methods of calculating seniority, the Unions must select a single system within 30 days of ratification of this agreement. Where they are unable to agree on a single system, the system reference in (a) above will apply.
- (c) Movement Between Agencies

When an employee who was employed by one Employer and is subsequently employed by another Employer as a result of a merger, the employee will be credited with seniority in accordance with the following:

- (1) Where the two Employers have a similar method of calculating seniority each employee moving from one agency to another will be credited with their seniority.
- (2) Where the Employers have a different method of calculating seniority, the employee will have their seniority calculated by their current Employer using the methodology of the new Employer.

12.2 Seniority List

The Employer will prepare and provide to the Union once every six months, in January and July an up-to-date seniority list containing the following information for all employees:

- (a) employee's name;
- (b) employee's seniority;
- (c) employee's current classification;
- (d) employee's rate of pay;
- (e) employee's status (per Article 2.1 Employees);
- (f) employee's continuous service date.

This seniority list, except rate of pay, will be posted by the Employer at all worksites for 30 days. Any objection to the accuracy of the seniority or continuous service date information contained therein must be submitted in writing to the Employer during the said posting period. Thereafter, the posted list will be deemed to be valid and correct for all purposes for the duration of that posting period.

The Employer will provide the Union and a union designated employee with a copy of the seniority list upon request.

12.3 Loss of Seniority

An employee will lose her seniority only in the event that:

- (a) she is discharged for just cause;
- (b) subject to Article 12.5 (Bridging of Service), she voluntarily terminates her employment or abandons her position, as per Article 11.7 (Abandonment of Position);
- (c) she is on layoff for more than one year;
- (d) upon being notified by the Employer by priority courier or facsimile at her last known address that she is recalled from layoff, she fails to contact the Employer with her acceptance of recall within seven days of receipt of the recall notice. 12.5 Bridging of Service

If a regular employee resigns after the signing of this agreement as a result of a decision to care for a dependent child or dependent children, spousal illness or disability, or an aging parent and is re-employed with her former employer, upon application she will be credited with length of service accumulated at time of termination for the purpose of benefits based on service seniority. The following conditions will apply:

- (a) the employee must have been a regular employee with at least two years of service seniority at time of termination;
- (b) the resignation must indicate the reason for termination;
- (c) the break in service will be for no longer than six years;
- (d) the previous length of service will not be reinstated until successful completion of the probation period on re-employment.

12.6 Same Seniority

When two or more employees have the same seniority and when mutual agreement cannot be reached, then seniority will be determined by chance.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFF AND RECALL13.1 Definition of a Layoff

"Layoff" is:

- (a) a cessation of employment or elimination of a job resulting from a reduction of the amount of work required to be done by the Employer, or reorganization, or a program termination, or closure or other material change in organization; or
- (b) a reduction in hours of work greater than four hours per week from the employees' posted position, or that results in the elimination of health and welfare benefits, or that results in a change in the employees' status.

13.2 Pre-Layoff Canvass

- (a) Before a layoff occurs, the Employer may consult with the Union to discuss lessening disruption to clients and staff. Prior to the layoff of regular employees under Article 13.3 (Layoff), the Employer will canvass employees in order to invite:
 - (1) placement on the casual call-in and recall lists with no loss of seniority; or
 - (2) early retirement; or
 - (3) other voluntary options, as agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

Where more than one employee expresses interest in one of the above options, they will be offered to qualified employees on the basis of seniority.

- (b) Responses from employees to the Pre-Layoff Canvass will only be received by the Employer for consideration if submitted within seven days of issuance of a written notice to the employee or group of employees.
- (c) Where an employee selects an option, once confirmed in writing by the employee and the Employer, such acceptance is final and binding upon the employee and the Employer. The Employer will notify the Union of the employee's selection.

13.3 Layoff

- (a) Non-residential: Both parties recognize that job security will increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, employees will be laid off by classification, in reverse order of seniority. Layoff notice will include a current list of junior positions available to bump under Article 13.4 (Bumping).
- (b) Residential Programs: Both parties recognize that job security will increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, employees will be laid off by classification, in reverse order of seniority within the appropriate shift within their worksite. Layoff notice will include a current list of junior positions available to bump under Article 13.4 (Bumping).

13.4 Bumping

- (a) The Employer will identify the date that the layoff will begin.
- (b) The laid off employee and the first two employees affected by bumping may choose:
 - (1) to be placed on the casual call-in and recall lists with no loss of seniority; or
 - (2) to bump any employee with less seniority if she is qualified to satisfactorily perform the work. An employee can bump up, but not into a supervisory position.

(c) Subsequent employees affected by bumping who are qualified to satisfactorily perform the work may choose:

- (1) (i) to bump the least senior employee in either their classification or a similar classification whose weekly hours are up to four hours more or less than the employee's or
- (ii) the least senior employee in a dissimilar classification whose weekly hours are up to four hours more or less than the employee's and that employee is junior to the employee who would have been bumped if the option in (i) above had been selected.
- (2) if no options exist under (1)(i) above then the employee may choose to use the process in (1) above to bump within the next four hour time band. If no options are available in this time band in the employee's own or similar classification the employee may choose the next four hour time band, this process will continue until the employee bumps or there are no more time bands available to the employee.

Similar classification means – in the same job family and in the same grid level or one grid level above or below the displaced employee's grid level.

(d) Within five days of receiving from the Employer both the notice of layoff and all information required by the employee to make an informed decision regarding her bump options, she will provide written notice to the Executive Director of her bump choice.

13.5 Recall

(a) Employees will be recalled to available work in order of their seniority provided they are qualified and are able to perform the duties. The notice of recall will be sent by priority courier or facsimile. Employees must accept recall within seven days of receipt of the priority courier or facsimile. Employees will have 14 days after accepting recall to return to work.

(b) The recall period will be one year. At the end of the recall period, an employee has the right to become a casual employee and be placed on call-in lists with their seniority.

(c) New employees will not be hired into a regular position until those laid off in that classification have been given an opportunity of recall.

(d) Job posting under Article 24 (Promotion and Staff Changes) will occur prior to recall of any employee. When there are employees on the recall list, job postings will include a copy of this article.

(e) Employees on the recall list have the right to apply for job postings as an internal applicant.

(f) When an employee on the recall list is a qualified applicant to a position, then the Employer will not consider applications to the vacancy from any less senior employees.

(g) When an employee on the recall list is the successful applicant to a position, she will not be expected to start in the new position until 14 days from the notice of assignment unless an earlier date is determined by mutual agreement between the employee and the Employer.

- (c) Where an employee is required to accompany a client away from the worksite for a meal, the employee will be reimbursed for the actual cost of her meal.

(d) The penalty in (c) above does not apply if the change is initiated by the Employer with less than 48 hours' notice because of an unanticipated absence of a scheduled employee, and no casual employee is available.

(e) If child care or other serious personal circumstances do not permit such a change, employees may choose to transfer to casual status. An employee who transfers from regular to casual status will have their regular sick bank frozen and inaccessible until such time as the employee posts back to regular status or posts to a vacancy under Article 24.11 (Temporary Vacancies).

- (a) time and one-half for the first two hours of overtime on a regularly scheduled workday; and
- (b) double-time for hours worked in excess of the two hours referred to in (a) above;
- (c) double-time for all hours worked on a scheduled day of rest.

The compensation of overtime in (a) and (b) is to be on a daily basis and not cumulative.

An employee may choose to receive equivalent compensatory time off in lieu of overtime. Time off will be scheduled at a mutually agreeable time.

- (b) A part-time employee working less than the normal days per week of a full-time employee, and who is required to work other than her regularly scheduled workdays, will be paid at the rate of straight-time for the days so worked up to and including the normal workdays in the workweek of a full-time employee.

Employees working in more than one program are obligated to inform the Employer or designate and receive approval if they are asked to work hours that would result in overtime.

The Employer and the Association of Unions recognize that the nature of the work carried out by persons in some classifications is such that it may not be possible for the employee to obtain prior authorization for the necessary overtime work. In such cases, the employee will, when possible, make every effort to obtain authorization. If this is not possible, she will use her discretion in working the overtime and the Employer will be considered to have authorized the time in advance.

17.2 Holiday Falling on Saturday or Sunday

For an employee whose normal workweek is from Monday to Friday and when any of the above-noted holidays falls on a Saturday and is not proclaimed as being observed on another day, the following Monday will be deemed to be the holiday. When a holiday falls on a Sunday and it is not proclaimed as being observed on another day, the following Monday (or Tuesday, where the preceding section already applies), will be deemed to be the holiday for the purpose of this agreement.

17.3 Holiday Falling on a Day of Rest

When a paid holiday falls on a regular employee's day of rest, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to give the employee a lieu day off with pay on the first regularly scheduled workday following the day of rest so affected. Where this is not possible, the lieu day will be scheduled by mutual agreement and taken within six months of the day in which it was earned. An employee may, by mutual agreement, take lieu days off together with their vacation in accordance with Article 18.5 (Vacation Schedules).

17.4 Working on a Designated Lieu Day

If a regular employee is called to work on a day designated as the lieu day, the employee will be compensated at time and one-half for all hours worked and the lieu day will be rescheduled in accordance with Article 17.3 (Holiday Falling on a Day of Rest).

An employee who is required to work on a designated holiday will be compensated at one point five times her regular hourly rate of pay for the hours worked. Regular employees will also receive a day off in lieu. Regular part-time employees receive a day off in lieu as per Article 17.11 (Paid Holidays for Part-Time Employees). The lieu day will be scheduled by mutual agreement or in accordance with Article 18.5 (Vacation Schedules) or where the Employer and the employee mutually agree, be paid out. The lieu day will be scheduled by mutual agreement and taken within six months of the day in which it was earned or where the Employer and the employee mutually agree, be paid out. An employee may, by mutual agreement, take lieu days off together with their vacation in accordance with Article 18.5 (Vacation Schedules).

17.8 Paid Holiday Pay

17.9 Religious and Ethno-Cultural Holidays

An employee will have the option of working Boxing Day and Easter Monday if her worksite is open, in exchange for two paid days off to observe religious and/or other ethno-cultural holidays other than those referenced in Article 17.1 (Paid Holidays). Employees exercising this option will not be entitled to compensation pursuant to Article 17.5 (Holiday Falling on a Workday) on Boxing Day and Easter Monday and will provide the Employer with the dates of the alternative two days for which leave will be requested. If the employee's paid holiday bank does not contain an amount sufficient to cover the holiday, the employee may opt to draw from her vacation or overtime banks to top-up pay for the holiday or take a day off without pay or with partial pay.

(c) Participation in the "paid holiday bank" was determined by a vote of all employees on an agency by agency basis. Where the unionized employees chose not to participate in the "paid holiday bank" the part-time employees will receive four point two per cent of straight-time pay instead of a day off with pay.

(d) For new certifications, the unionized employees will elect whether or not the agency will participate in the "paid holiday bank" by voting on the option. Once the election is made it is irreversible.

- (b) A single vacation period, which overlaps the end of a vacation year, will be considered as vacation for the vacation year in which it commenced. The portion of vacation taken subsequent to but adjoining the end of the vacation year will not be considered as vacation carryover, nor as a seniority choice for the subsequent vacation year.

18.5 Vacation Schedules

- (a) Employees will submit their vacation requests to the supervisor on or before:
 - (1) November 1st for the period January 1st through April 30th, and

In the case of sick leave, this section will only apply when the period of illness or injury is in excess of two days and a note from a qualified medical practitioner may be required. Upon request, an employee will be advised in writing of the balance of her sick leave credits.

(c) Each sick leave day will be compensated at 80% of the employee's regular rate of pay.

(d) All sick leave credits are cancelled when an employee's employment is terminated.

Note: Employees hired prior to April 1, 2004 will have their existing sick banks, as of April 1, 2004, converted at a ratio of one day = one point two five days credited to their sick leave credits. In the event that this adjustment results in an employee's sick leave bank exceeding 156 days, no further sick leave accumulation will apply until such time as the sick leave bank falls below 156 days, in which case the employee's maximum accumulation will not again exceed 156 days.

The trial period will be extended by an amount equal to any absences of the employee that occur during her trial period and that are greater than two weeks in duration. Employee absences may result in the trial period extending beyond the six calendar months referred to above.  - (3) The decision of the Arbitrator is without prejudice. These decisions will have no precedent and value.
 - (4) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to or during the mediated part of this expedited process will be without prejudice.

Whenever practical, evaluation interviews will take place during the employee's regular working hours. Where the evaluation interview is held outside the employee's working hours, the employee will be paid at the appropriate rate of pay. Provision will be made on the evaluation form for an employee to sign it. The form will provide for the employee's signature in two places, one indicating that the employee has read and accepts the evaluation, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the evaluation. The employee will sign in only one of the places provided. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an evaluation report unless the signature indicates disagreement with the evaluation. An employee will receive a copy of this evaluation report at the time of signing. ARTICLE 29 - HARASSMENTPreamble

The Employer and the Association of Unions agree that every person working in the social services sector has the right to work in an environment free from harassment. The parties will work jointly to support and implement education and prevention efforts to address harassment.

29.1 Personal and Psychological Harassment

(a) Personal and psychological harassment means objectionable conduct – either repeated or persistent, or a single serious incident - that an individual would reasonably conclude:

(1) creates a risk to a worker's psychological or physical well-being, causes a worker substantial distress, or results in an employee's humiliation or intimidation; or

(2) is discriminatory behaviour that causes substantial distress and is based on a person's race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political beliefs, religion, marital status, physical or mental disability, sex, age, sexual orientation or gender identity; or

(3) is seriously inappropriate and serves no legitimate work-related purpose.

(b) Good faith actions of a manager or supervisor relating to the management and direction of employees – such as assigning work, providing feedback to employees on work performance, and taking reasonable disciplinary action – do not constitute harassment.

29.2 Sexual Harassment

(a) Sexual harassment includes sexually oriented verbal or physical behaviour which an individual would reasonably find to be unwanted or unwelcome, giving consideration to all surrounding circumstances and which may detrimentally affect the work environment. Such behaviour could include, but is not limited to:

- (1) touching, patting or other physical contact;
- (2) leering, staring or the making of sexual gestures;
- (3) demands for sexual favours;
- (4) verbal abuse or threats;
- (5) unwanted sexual invitations;
- (6) physical assault of a sexual nature;
- (7) distribution or display of sexual or offensive pictures or material;
- (8) unwanted questions or comments of a sexual nature;
- (9) practical jokes of a sexual nature.

(b) To constitute sexual harassment, behaviour may be repeated or persistent or may be a single serious incident.

(c) Sexual harassment will often, but need not, be accompanied by an expressed or implied threat of reprisal or promise of reward.

(d) Sexual harassment refers to behaviour initiated by both males and females and directed toward members of either sex.

29.3 Harassment Complaints

(a) An employee with an allegation of harassment is called the complainant and the person who they are making a complaint against is called the respondent.

(b) A harassment complaint is not a grievance. The complainant must follow this complaint process. However, any action taken by the Employer as a result of the complaint process may be grieved.

(c) All complaints will be kept confidential by the complainant, the respondent, the Employer, the Union and witnesses.

(d) The complainant and the respondent (if she is a member of the Union) have the right to union representation.

(e) A complainant may try to informally resolve their complaint with the assistance of a supervisor, manager, steward, union staff representative or mediator. If the complainant is satisfied with the outcome reached at this point, the complaint is resolved.

(f) Until a harassment complaint is resolved, the Employer may take interim measures, including separating the complainant and respondent.

(g) A complainant has the right to file a complaint under the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

29.4 Complaints Procedure

(a) A formal complaint must be submitted in writing within six months of the last alleged occurrence.

(b) A complaint must be submitted through the Union and/or directly to the Executive Director (or the equivalent or designate). When the Executive Director has received a complaint, she will notify the respondent and the union staff representative of the substance of the complaint in writing within 15 days.

(c) The complaint must contain the specific instance(s) and date(s) that the alleged harassment occurred, the names of any witnesses, an explanation of how the action constitutes a violation of Article 29 (Harassment), and the remedy sought.

(d) The Executive Director or her designate will investigate the complaint and will complete her report in writing within 30 days.

(e) The Employer will take action to resolve the complaint within 10 days of receiving the investigator's report.

(f) The Employer will advise the respondent, the complainant and the Union in writing of the substance of the investigator's report and the resolution of the complaint.

(g) If the resolution involves separating employees, reasonable efforts will be made to relocate or reschedule the respondent. The complainant may agree in writing to be transferred or rescheduled.

(h) If the resolution involves separating an employee and a respondent who is not an employee, reasonable efforts will be made to remedy the situation.

(i) If the respondent is the Executive Director (or equivalent), or where there are possible systemic issues or multiple complaints, the following process will be used:

(1) The complainant will contact the Union.

(2) As soon as possible but within 30 days the Union will notify the Executive Director (or equivalent) and CSSEA. Article 29.4 (a) and (c) apply to the notice. CSSEA will inform the Employer's Board of Directors.

(3) CSSEA and the Union will appoint either Brian Foley or Corinn Bell to resolve the complaint. (The person appointed is referred to below as "the Appointee".)

(4) After consultation with the parties involved, the Appointee will establish the process to resolve the complaint. The process may include – at the Appointee's discretion – any of the following (or any combination of them): fact-finding, mediation, making recommendations or a full report, or conducting an expedited arbitration. In exercising his or her discretion with respect to the process, the Appointee will consider the parties' desire that the process be fair and expeditious, that it minimizes disruption in the workplace, that it respects individual privacy to the degree possible in the circumstances, and that it keeps costs to a reasonable level. The Appointee will submit any report or recommendations to CSSEA and the Union. The report and recommendations will remain confidential, except for distribution to the Employer's Board of Directors, the complainant and the respondent. The Appointee may stipulate conditions she/he deems appropriate with respect to distribution. Any outcomes of the process are without prejudice or precedent for other proceedings.

(5) The Appointee's fees and expenses will be shared by the Employer and the Union.

(j) The Employer may take appropriate action, including discipline, against a complainant if the investigation determines that the complaint is frivolous, vindictive or vexatious.

Note: The Step 4 rate for unique jobs will be determined by the JEP and will be subject to the increment steps above.

A. Implementation (Effective April 1, 2004)

Casual employees hired prior to April 1, 2004 will be paid at Step 4 of the classification in which the casual employee is working.

B. Wage Protection

Wage protection will apply to regular employees hired prior to April 1, 2004, who have a pay rate greater than the Step 4 rate in Appendix A (Wage Grid), unless the employee successfully posts into a lower classification.

Wage protection will apply to casual employees hired prior to April 1, 2004, who are paid at Step 4 of the classification in which the casual employee is working [see Appendix A (Wage Grid)].

Effective April 1, 2013, an employee with wage protection will receive 50% of all general wage increases until the new wage rate for her classification meets or exceeds her existing wage rate. Such increases shall be recognized as incumbent specific.

Wage protection applies to:

- additional straight-time hours worked by a regular full-time and regular part-time employee as per Article 14.2(e) (Hours of Work) in her classification;

- overtime hours in the employee's classification;
- statutory holidays/annual vacation pay/sick leave; and
- assignment of regular hours as per Article 24.1(c) (Job Postings) in the employee's classification.

Wage protection rates do not apply to:

- additional straight-time hours worked by a regular full-time and regular part-time employee as per Article 14.2(e) (Hours of Work) in a classification other than the employee's own. In such circumstances, she will be paid at Step 4 of the classification in which the employee is working.

An employee will lose her wage protection (status) rates:

- if she posted to a different classification prior to April 1, 2013;
- when she is demoted by the Employer as a result of disciplinary action;
- when regular employees achieve a casual position except where it is a temporary assignment directed by the Employer;
- when she bumps under layoff provisions into a different job family or into a different grid level.

C. Increment System (subject to B. Wage Protection)

Regular Employees

Regular employees appointed, in accordance with Article 24 (Promotion and Staff Changes), to a higher grid level will be placed on the grid in accordance with Article 26.5 (Rate of Pay on Reclassification or Promotion) of the collective agreement. Regular employees will remain at that step until they meet the hours for the next step. Increment hours calculations start on the first day in the new classification.

Regular employees appointed, in accordance with Article 24 (Promotion and Staff Changes), to a lower grid level will be placed at the step immediately lower than her rate. Regular employees will remain at that step until they meet the hours for the next step. Increment hours calculations start on the first day in the new classification.

Regular employees appointed, in accordance with Article 24 (Promotion and Staff Changes), within the same grid level will retain their rate. Regular employees will remain at that step until they meet the hours for the next step. Increment hours calculations start on the first day in the new classification.

Regular employees who are laid off and displace employees in another classification will be placed at the rate which corresponds to the total number of hours the employee worked within the classification of the displaced employee.

Casual Employees

A casual employee appointed, in accordance with Article 24 (Promotion and Staff Changes), to a regular position will be placed at the appropriate step given the total number of hours the employee worked within the classification she was appointed to.

D. Non-Provincially Funded Positions ("NPF")

During the term of the collective agreement, the parties will negotiate local Memoranda of Agreement that apply to NPF positions. CSSEA and CSSBA may delegate their negotiations to the local Employer and Union.

Such agreements are subject to CSSEA and CSSBA approval. If negotiations do not result in an agreement, the new terms and conditions will be resolved by Interest Arbitration using an arbitrator named in Appendix B (List of Arbitrators).

Existing memoranda and letters that apply to NPF positions will remain in full force and effect until the above noted negotiations produce an agreement.

Any and all memoranda and letters that apply to NPF positions will be without prejudice.

Pursuant to Memorandum of Agreement #9 (Re: Joint Job Evaluation Plan), the parties agree that the following wage grids will be effective on March 31, 2006. Sections A through to D of Appendix A (Wage Grid) will continue to apply.

E. Social Worker Classifications

- The parties agree that the Growth Series within the Aboriginal Delegated Social Worker Progression (ADSWP) will be dependent upon actual hours paid while in a delegated position. Any hours worked in a non-delegated position will not apply to progression on the ADSWP.
- The above salary grids reflect the current salary grid for SPO 4 (Child Protection Social Worker), SPO 5 and SPO 6, under the Master Agreement and extension as of March 31, 2019.
- CSSEA and the Union agree that due to the devolution of services to Regional Authorities and to the unique nature of Aboriginal agencies delegated under the Child and Family Community Services Act, Aboriginal Delegated Social Workers (ADSW's or SPO's) salaries shall be compensated in accordance to the Master Agreement.
- The parties agree that the above Aboriginal Delegated Social Worker (ADSW) grid levels will be implemented upon ratification of the Aboriginal Services Collective Agreement and will be adjusted, upon ratification of the 17th Master Agreement to reflect the new salary grids (SPO 4, 5, 6). The parties also agree that where delegated or non-delegated social worker positions and/or classifications are created by the Employer and/or are identified as being comparable or equivalent to classifications under the Public Service Job Evaluation Plan (PSJEP) the parties shall meet within 30 days of the creation of the new classification to identify the appropriate rate of pay as benchmarked by the PSJEP. Where the parties cannot agree, the matter shall be referred to Bob Pেকেles for final determination.
- Wage increases referenced in the 17th Master Agreement include the Economic Stability Dividend (ESD) which is payable as the cents per hour equivalent to the percent of pay which would be paid from the ESD formula as a general wage increase.

Wage scales for the following general wage increases cannot be determined at this time as they may be impacted by ESDs. New wage scales will be posted on both the BCGEU and CSSEA websites and distributed to members once they are known:

F. Non-Delegated Aboriginal Social Workers

The parties agree that wages for non-delegated social work classifications not comparable or equivalent to classifications under the PSJEP will be compensated according to the Community Social Services JJEP Wage Grid and the JJEP ParaProfessional Wage Grid. The parties agree to meet and determine the applicable grid levels within 30 days of the date of ratification. All employees who are receiving a wage rate in excess of the collective agreement rates, as of March 30, 2006, shall be wage protected.

G. The parties agree that administrative support employees who are working exclusively in delegated programs shall receive wage rates equivalent to those of the same position within the Master Agreement. The parties agree to meet within 60 days to determine the applicable grid levels. Where the parties cannot agree, the matter shall be referred to Bob Pekeles for final determination.

H. All other employees shall be compensated as per the JJEP wage Grid or the JJEP ParaProfessional Wage Grid.

APPENDIX A2 Details of Wage Increases

The timing and percentages of the increases will be as follows, effective at the start of the first pay period after the respective dates:

- April 1, 2015 1.0% GWI across the board
- February 1, 2016 Economic Stability Dividend (TBD)
- April 1, 2016 2.5% Compensation Comparability Adjustment for defined classifications
- April 1, 2016 0.5% GWI equivalent to address classification anomalies
- February 1, 2017 1.0% GWI across the board + Economic Stability Dividend (TBD)
- April 1, 2017 2.5% Compensation Comparability Adjustment for defined classifications
- April 1, 2017 0.5% GWI equivalent to address classification anomalies
- February 1, 2018 1.0% GWI across the board + Economic Stability Dividend (TBD)
- April 1, 2018 2.5% Compensation Comparability Adjustment for defined classifications
- April 1, 2018 0.5% GWI equivalent to address classification anomalies
- February 1, 2019 1.0% GWI across the board + Economic Stability Dividend (TBD)

Despite the foregoing, wage rates for employees in Delegated Programs (Aboriginal Services Collective Agreement Appendix A1) will increase according to the timing and level of increases in the 17th Master Agreement between the BCGEU and the government.

The above percentages may increase, depending on the effect of the Economic Stability Dividend (see Letter of Understanding #5 (Re: Economic Stability Dividend)).

Compensation Comparability Adjustment

The comparability adjustment for classifications meet defined criteria. Each of these adjustments will increase those classifications by an average of 2.5%, and the total of each such increase will have a cost impact over the entire unit equivalent to 2.0%.

The remaining 0.5% in each case will be allocated according to the results of a joint classification review, for the purpose of addressing anomalies in the classification system. However, no adjustment will be made if it would create additional demands in other sectors.

The criteria for the average 2.5% comparability adjustment are as follows:

- The classification must have a comparator classification in the Community Health Collective Agreement and be on the attached list (see below);
- The difference in the wage rates is adversely affecting the provision of service to clients;
- There is a reasonable expectation that a wage adjustment will reduce this adverse impact; and
- The adjustment will not create additional demands in other sectors.

The joint committee will determine if a classification meets the above criteria. The committee's determination is subject to confirmation by the PSEC Secretariat.

Economic Stability Dividend

In addition to the above increases, wages will be increased, if the conditions set out in the Letter of Understanding #5 (Re: Economic Stability Dividend) are met, for each of the following collective agreement years: 2015/16, 2016/17, 2017/18 and 2018/19. The appropriate percentage increases, if any, will be calculated according to Letter of Understanding #5 (Re: Economic Stability Dividend).

INFORMATION APPENDIX C Maintenance Agreement and Classification Manual

*between
Community Social Services Employers' Association (CSSEA)
and
Community Social Services Bargaining Association (CSSBA)*

MAINTENANCE AGREEMENT

Preamble

Whereas the parties agree to Section 5 of the Munroe Recommendations ("Munroe") and the Memorandum of Agreement on Job Evaluation Plan, the parties agree to the following Maintenance Agreement, including the Classification Manual ("this agreement").

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The purpose of this Maintenance Agreement is to provide a standard procedure for the description and classification of jobs and the evaluation of work in the Community Social Services Sector.

2. Coverage

- 2.1 The provisions of this agreement will apply to all work that is now or will come within the scope of the Community Social Services Sector Joint Job Evaluation Plan (JJEP).
- 2.2 This agreement will be subject to the dispute resolution process under Article 7 of this agreement.

3. Existing Rights

- 3.1 Without intending to create any new rights and obligations but only for greater certainty it is agreed that:
- (a) Subject to the collective agreement and subject to the procedures of this agreement, the Employer has the right to organize its work in a manner that best suits its operational requirements and to establish new jobs and to change existing jobs.
 - (b) The Union has the right to enforce this agreement and in particular may ensure that:
 - (i) a job has been established in a proper manner under the terms of the collective agreement and this agreement;
 - (ii) a job description accurately describes the work required to be done;
 - (iii) the qualifications established by the Employer for a job are reasonable and relevant to the work required to be done;
 - (iv) a job is properly classified in relation to the benchmarks;
 - (v) unique jobs are properly identified and rated; and
 - (vi) a position is assigned to an appropriate job description.
 - (c) Where a conflict arises between the collective agreement and this agreement, the collective agreement will take precedence.

4. Benchmark Class Specifications and Joint Job Evaluation Plan

- 4.1 The benchmark class specifications (the "benchmarks") and the JJEP, in existence at the date of this agreement and agreed to by the parties and listed in Schedule A, will constitute the sole criteria for classifying work covered by the collective agreement. Except as provided for in Article 7.7(d) of the Maintenance Agreement, no new benchmark will be introduced and no existing benchmark will be changed except by mutual agreement between CSSEA and the CSSBA. Neither party will withhold mutual agreement unreasonably.
- 4.2 Each benchmark will be rated using the JJEP and assigned to an appropriate classification grid, which will be deemed to comprise part of the benchmark.

5. Job Descriptions

- 5.1 The Employer will prepare job descriptions for all jobs for which the Union is the certified bargaining agent.

5.2 The Employer will have the right to determine the content of job descriptions subject to the requirements of this agreement and the collective agreement.

5.3 All job descriptions will include:

- (a) job title
- (b) benchmark to which the job has been classified
- (c) point value rating and the rating rationale in the case of unique jobs
- (d) classification grid
- (e) job summary
- (f) listing of the typical job duties
- (g) qualifications required by the Employer.

5.4 Each regular employee is entitled to a copy of the recognized job description for her position.

6. Classification of New Jobs and Changes to Existing Jobs

6.1 Where the Employer makes a material change to an existing job it will revise the job description. The completed job description will be forwarded to the designated union representative and CSSEA within 20 calendar days.

6.2 Where the Employer establishes a new job it will write a new job description. The completed job description will be forwarded to the designated union representative and CSSEA within 20 calendar days.

6.3 Where the Employer makes a material change to an existing job and the Employer has not revised the job description, the designated union representative or an employee may identify the change to the Employer, CSSEA, and the Union by submitting a Classification Review Form. The Employer will provide a written response to the designated union representative and the employee within 20 calendar days. The designated union representative may refer the issue, including the classification of the job, to the Classification Arbitrator pursuant to the process outlined in Articles 6.4 to 6.9.

6.4 Within 45 calendar days of receipt of a notice in accordance with Article 6.1, 6.2, or 6.3 of the Maintenance Agreement, the designated union representative will notify the Employer and CSSEA in writing if she objects to the job description and/or classification grid on the basis of Article 3.1(b) of the agreement and the relevant provisions of the collective agreement. Notification will include specific details of the objection, and the resolution sought.

6.5 Where the designated union representative does not object, in writing, in accordance with Article 6.4 of the Maintenance Agreement, the job description and classification will be deemed agreed.

6.6 Within 45 calendar days of the receipt of an objection under Article 6.4 of the Maintenance Agreement, the Employer will review the objection and notify the designated union representative and CSSEA of its determination in writing.

6.7 If the Employer's written determination is not acceptable or not provided within the time limit, the designated union representative may, within a further period of 30 calendar days, notify CSSEA and the Employer of the intent to refer the dispute to a classification arbitrator for a final and binding decision in accordance with Article 7 of the Maintenance Agreement. Notification will include a written submission outlining the basis of the objection and the resolution sought.

6.8 Within 45 calendar days of receipt of notification of the intent to refer a dispute to a classification arbitrator for a final and binding decision, CSSEA, the Employer, and the designated union representative will attempt to resolve the dispute.

6.9 If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, the designated union representative or CSSEA may refer the matter to a classification arbitrator for a final and binding decision. CSSEA and the designated union representative will, within 30 calendar days of the referral, submit an Agreed Statement of Facts to the Classification Arbitrator outlining the dispute and the issue(s) that are the subject of the dispute. If the parties are unable to agree on an Agreed Statement of Facts each party will submit, to the Classification Arbitrator and to all parties to the dispute, a separate Statement of Facts outlining the dispute, and the issue(s) that are the subject of the dispute.

7. Dispute Resolution Process

7.1 The Classification Arbitrators Rick Coleman, John Hall and Julie Nichols have been mutually agreed to by CSSEA and the CSSBA. By mutual agreement between the parties another classification arbitrator may be named.

7.2 The parties will meet every month, or as often as required, to review outstanding matters.

7.3 CSSEA and the CSSBA will make every effort to agree to the expedited arbitration process to resolve disputes. The parties recognize that where the matter is precedential, results in the development of a new benchmark or where the parties are unable to agree, the matter will be resolved using a full arbitration process.

7.4 The expedited arbitration process will be governed by the following principles:

(a) The location of the hearing will be agreed to by the parties.

(b) Unless otherwise mutually agreed, each party will be limited to a four hour presentation.

(c) The parties will utilize staff representatives of the Union and CSSEA to present cases, and will not utilize outside legal counsel.

(d) The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations.

(e) The decision of the Classification Arbitrator will be final and binding on both parties.

(f) All decisions of the Classification Arbitrator are to be limited in application to the particular dispute and are without prejudice. Arbitration awards will be of no precedential value and will not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter. All settlements made prior to hearing will be without prejudice.

7.5 Within 45 calendar days of the receipt of an Agreed Statement of Facts or the separate Statements of Facts, the Classification Arbitrator will make every effort to hear the full or expedited arbitration and render a final and binding decision in writing.

7.6 The Classification Arbitrator will have sole jurisdiction and her jurisdiction will be limited to the application and interpretation of this agreement. Where there is an alleged violation of the collective agreement, the collective agreement grievance procedure will apply.

7.7 With respect to Classification of New Jobs and Changes to Existing Jobs, the decision of the Classification Arbitrator will be based upon the same criteria applicable to the parties themselves. The decision of the Classification Arbitrator will be limited to a direction that:

- (a) the position be assigned to another existing job description;
 - (b) a new job description be prepared by the Employer that more accurately describes the type of duties, the overall scope and level of responsibility, and the required qualifications of the job;
 - (c) except as outlined in Article 7.7(d) of the Maintenance Agreement, the job be appropriately classified, provided that the Classification Arbitrator will not have jurisdiction to classify a job except within the existing benchmarks including the existing classification grids and wage rates;
 - (d) where the Classification Arbitrator concludes that a job does not conform to an existing benchmark, the Classification Arbitrator will notify CSSEA and the Union of her decision. CSSEA, the CSSBA and the Union will endeavour to establish an appropriate benchmark and benchmark point value rating for the job. If the parties agree that the job is a unique job, the parties will endeavour to rate the job using the JEP. Failing mutual agreement by the parties, each party will make a submission within 30 calendar days to the Classification Arbitrator as to the appropriate benchmark, benchmark point value rating and/or unique job point value rating to be established. The Classification Arbitrator will establish a new benchmark or amend an existing benchmark or establish an appropriate point value rating in the case of unique jobs and the decision of the Classification Arbitrator will be binding on the parties. The Classification Arbitrator will also establish, through rating, an appropriate Classification grid and existing wage rate for the new or revised benchmark, with jurisdiction limited to existing classification grids and wage rates. The Classification Arbitrator will not have the jurisdiction to establish new wage rates or classification grids.
- 7.8 Arbitration hearings called by the Classification Arbitrator will have the same status as an arbitration pursuant to the collective agreement.
- 7.9 The fees and expenses of the Classification Arbitrator for expedited arbitration and arbitration hearings will be borne equally by the Employer and the Union.
- 8. Pay Adjustments
- 8.1 Where the rate of pay of a job is adjusted upward, the employee will be placed in the appropriate pay grid.
- 8.2 The effective date of pay rate adjustments is determined as follows:
- (a) Where a pay rate adjustment occurs as a result of the application of Article 6.3 initiated by the Union or the employee, the increase will take effect on the date the Employer receives the Classification Review Form identifying the issue from the Union or the employee.
 - (b) Where a pay rate adjustment occurs as a result of the Employer revising an existing job (Article 6.1), or creating a new job (Article 6.2), or negotiation or arbitration related to same, the adjustment will take effect on the first day an employee occupies the position after it was established or revised.
- 8.3 Where the rate of pay of a job is adjusted downward, the employee will continue to be paid at the employee's current rate of pay until the wage rate in the new job equals or exceeds it.

9. Definitions

- (a) Position: a group of duties and responsibilities regularly assigned to one person. It may be occupied or vacant and may be created, changed, or deleted in order to meet operational requirements.
- (b) Job: one or more positions performing essentially the same duties, similar scope and level of responsibility, and required qualifications covered by the same job description.
- (c) Other Related Duties: the phrase "Other Related Duties" will include those additional duties related to the job and/or the operation of the organization that may be assigned to the employee.
- (d) Unique Job: a unique job is a single job which does not match any existing benchmark because the job is uncommon in the Sector, or it involves a type of work not already included in the benchmarks, or because it involves duties and responsibilities that are not essentially similar to an existing benchmark in terms of scope and level of responsibility.
- (e) CSSEA: the Community Social Services Employers' Association of British Columbia.
- (f) Employer: a community social service organization that is a member of CSSEA.
- (g) Union: a single Union that is a member of the CSSBA.
- (h) CSSBA: Community Social Services Bargaining Association.
- (i) Collective Agreement: a collective agreement in force between CSSEA and the CSSBA.

CLASSIFICATION MANUAL

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Classification Manual, which forms part of the Maintenance Agreement, outlines the definitions, format and principles of classification to be followed in rating benchmark class specifications, hereafter called benchmarks, in matching jobs to the benchmarks, and in rating unique jobs.

2. Benchmarks

- 2.1 Benchmarks set forth the overall scope and level of responsibility and the typical duties by which jobs are distinguished and classified under the Classification System.
- 2.2 Benchmarks also set forth the level of qualifications appropriate for the scope and level of responsibility specified in the benchmark(s).
- 2.3 Benchmarks do not describe jobs. They are used to classify a wide diversity of jobs by identifying the scope and level of responsibilities.
- 2.4 Benchmarks are rated using the JJEP to establish their point value rating and relative value.

3. Format of Benchmarks

3.1 Job Families

All benchmarks are grouped together on the basis of closely related functional activities, fields of work, or occupations. Each of these groups is called a "job family". There are six job families in the Classification System:

- (a) Administrative, Finance and Technical
- (b) Counsellors and Consultants
- (c) Front Line Workers

- (d) Graduate Degrees & Licensed Professionals
- (e) Operation Support
- (f) Supervisors and Coordinators.

3.2 Benchmark Title

Each benchmark within a job family is identified by a benchmark title. For example (note: this is for illustrative purposes only):

Job Family: Administrative and Finance
 Benchmark Title: Receptionist/General Office Clerk
 Benchmark Title: Bookkeeper

3.3 Benchmark Duties

(a) The duties listed in a benchmark are a representative sampling of the functions being performed at the scope and level of responsibility that result in a job being classified at the benchmark level.

(b) The listing of typical duties identified on a benchmark is not intended to be exhaustive or all-encompassing. Job duties or responsibilities that are not specifically mentioned in the relevant benchmark are deemed to be encompassed by that benchmark if that job duty or responsibility is essentially similar to the benchmark in terms of scope and level of responsibility, as described in the job summary.

3.4 Benchmark Qualifications

(a) The qualifications set forth in a benchmark reflect the level of education and/or training and the experience appropriate to the scope and level of responsibility of the benchmark.

(b) The parties agree that different qualifications may be required for jobs that are matched to the same benchmark, or for different benchmarks matched to the same classification grid in order to meet the unique work organization in the Community Social Services Sector.

(c) Membership in a professional association or group is not a required qualification for any job under the Classification System unless required by legislation or regulation.

4. Unique Jobs

4.1 Job descriptions for unique jobs set forth the scope and level of responsibility, the duties and the appropriate level of qualifications for jobs which do not match any existing benchmark because the jobs are uncommon in the Sector, or they involve a type of work not already included in the benchmarks, or because they involve duties and responsibilities that are not essentially similar to an existing benchmark in terms of scope and level of responsibility.

4.2 Jobs which can be integrated are not considered unique jobs.

4.3 Unique jobs are rated using the JJEP to establish their point value rating and relative value.

5. Wage Rate

5.1 Each benchmark and unique job will be assigned to a Classification grid. Each Classification grid has a corresponding wage rate, which is listed in the collective agreement. For example (note: this is for illustrative purposes only):

Benchmark Title: Residence Worker classification grid:10

6. Principles of Classification

- 6.1 The JJEP is used to rate benchmarks and unique jobs and thereby establish their point value rating and relative value.
- 6.2 The purpose of benchmarks is to establish the means whereby jobs may be properly classified and distinguished. To that end a job should be classified on the basis of best fit according to the overall type of duties and scope and level of responsibilities which are performed to an extent material for a reasonable standard of job classification.
- 6.3 Unique jobs are rated using the JJEP and assigned to a classification grid in accordance with their point value rating.
- 6.4 Where the parties identify essentially similar duties and responsibilities for a group of unique jobs, a benchmark will be created.
- 6.5 Integrated Jobs: Where a job encompasses work in two or more benchmarks, and where it is administratively impractical to keep track or even identify when the incumbent is working within one or the other of the classifications, the job will be classified at the highest classification of the jobs being performed.
- 6.6 Special Licences and Certificates: Where the employee is required by the Employer to carry a special licence, certificate or qualification, she should be classified consistently with such licence, certification or qualification.
- 6.7 Incumbent employees in positions who do not possess the qualifications set out in the benchmark to which their jobs have been matched will continue to be so classified as long as they continue to occupy the jobs.
- 6.8 Jobs are classified only by comparison to the benchmarks and not by comparison to other jobs.
- 6.9 Throughout the whole process of evaluating jobs, it is the job that is evaluated and not the employee.
- 6.10 Layering Over: Supervisors and lead hands must be compensated at a rate higher than those they supervise or lead. Where this cannot be accomplished by classification to an existing benchmark, positions designated as layered over will be compensated at a rate of two additional grids above the highest position supervised for positions at pay grade 12 or below OR one additional grid for those positions at pay grade 13 or above. A supervisor or lead hand, for the purpose of this article, is defined as a worker who reviews, assigns and monitors the work of other assigned workers.

INFORMATION APPENDIX D

Continuity of Service and Employment Memorandum

between

and

and

The Province of British Columbia

Definitions

To the extent that this Memorandum of Understanding ("the MOU") does not otherwise define a word or phrase, the definitions in the Labour Relations Code and the Community Services Labour Relations Act apply.

In the MOU:

"CLBC" means Community Living British Columbia.

"Contracting" includes requests for proposals, other tendering activity, and contracts entered into, where the successful proponent will provide substantially the same services as those being provided by a CSSEA member. The term does not include, however, arrangements to provide new programs or services; the use of volunteers or family home providers; the direct funding of individuals or families; or the awarding of contracts or transferring services or programs to aboriginal agencies.

"CSSEA member" means an employer designated as a social services Employer under the Public Sector Employers Act, and includes agencies and Authorities.

"Employee" means a regular employee (full-time or part-time) in a bargaining unit of a CSSEA member.

"Province" means any provincial Ministry to the extent the Ministry funds into the community social services sector.

General Principles

The purpose of the MOU is to promote client service and employment continuity.

Contracting must comply with the principles and processes set out in the MOU.

Nothing in the MOU in any way restricts the right of CSSEA members to contract out as provided for under the Health and Social Services Delivery Improvement Act.

No party to the MOU will ask an arbitrator or other tribunal to find that the province, CLBC, an Authority or an agency is a "true Employer" or "common Employer" as a result of provisions of the MOU.

No party to the MOU will apply to the Labour Relations Board for a variance under this MOU without giving notice to all the affected parties, including individual unions that may be affected.

The MOU does not operate with respect to any contracting commenced prior to December 1, 2013, and it expires for all purposes on October 31, 2019.

Service and Employment Continuity

The following provisions apply to contracting by the province, CLBC, Authorities and by CSSEA members.

1. Where services are being provided by CSSEA members as of December 1, 2013, the Province, CLBC, an Authority and CSSEA members will enter into contracts with respect to those services only:

- (a) with CSSEA member, or
- (b) with proponents who, although not current CSSEA members, agree to be designated as CSSEA members (i.e. for purposes of the employees providing the contracted services) if and when they are awarded the contract.

2. Where an employee's services are no longer required as a result of contracting, the employee is entitled to priority hiring over external applicants, with the successful proponent (hereinafter "the receiving Employer") in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) The receiving Employer will determine the number and manner of vacancies created in the program.
- (b) Displaced employees wishing priority access must submit an application for employment. This provision does not preclude casual employees from receiving work where work is available.
- (c) Displaced employees will be interviewed and assessed, and to be eligible for hire, they must meet the receiving Employer's required qualifications, as per the collective agreement, and have the present capability to perform the work. Employees on leave at the time of contracting will be assessed by the receiving Employer for a vacancy, at the end of their leave, per the collective agreement.
- (d) Accepted employees will receive credit for service and port their seniority. This will include casual employees where they are offered work.
- (e) In the event several employees are interested in a single position, the successful candidate will be determined by the receiving Employer, pursuant to the collective agreement.

(f) Where employees are integrated into an existing certification, the employees will be represented by the Union representing the employees in that certification and will receive the terms and conditions of employment applicable to that certification.

(g) Grievances arising from this Memorandum are with the receiving Employer.

(h) This memorandum will also apply to agencies who become members of CSSEA by virtue of the Order in Council (OIC) six months following such order.

(i) A displaced employee who is enrolled in a pension plan that is the same as the pension plan at the receiving Employer will have access to the pension plan only in accordance with the plan rules. If the pension plan is different the employee will have the right to participate in the new plan consistent with the terms of the plan. This language does not confer a right to a pension plan where no such plan exists, nor does it expand the rules of any pension plan.

This Memorandum of Agreement is subject to the ratification by CSSEA and CSSBA of their tentative agreements pursuant to their Memorandum dated December 1, 2013.

INFORMATION APPENDIX G

Aboriginal Alternate Dispute Resolution Process Guidelines

Peacemaking Circles

A peacemaking circle is a process that brings together individuals who wish to engage in conflict resolution, healing, support, decision making or other activities in which honest communications, relationship development, and community building are core desired outcomes.

Circles offer an alternative to contemporary meeting processes that often rely on hierarchy, win-lose positioning and approaches to relationships and problem solving.

Circles intentionally create a sacred space that lifts barriers between people, opening fresh possibilities for connection, collaboration and mutual understanding. The process works because it brings people together in a way that allows them to see one another as human beings and talk about what matters.

Circles can be understood in terms of the values and principles upon which they operate, and the structures they use to support these values and principles.

Values and Principles – Though each circle develops its own values and principles, all peacemaking circles generally:

- are designed by those who use them
- are guided by a shared vision
- call participants to act on their personal values
- include all interests, and are accessible to all
- offer everyone an equal, and voluntary, opportunity to participate
- take a holistic approach, including the emotional, mental and physical and spiritual
- maintain respect for all
- encourage exploring instead of conquering differences
- invite accountability to others and to the process

Structure – Circles provide effective support to groups seeking to stay on course with the values and principles they have established for their circle.

The circle process is "simple but not easy" and must be experienced to be fully grasped and replicated. However, there are some key structures that help to define a circle.

- The meeting space is the most visible structure. Participants are seated in a circle focusing on the centre where symbolic objects may be placed to remind participants of values shared among those in the circle.
- A talking piece is used as a way to ensure respect between speakers and listeners. The talking piece is passed from person to person within the circle and only the person holding the piece may speak.
- Two "keepers" of the circle have been identified. The keepers guide the participants and keep the circle as a safe space. While it is possible to have only one keeper, generally a team of two is preferable.
- Ceremony and ritual are used to create safety and form.
- Consensus decision making honours the values and principles of peacemaking circles and helps participants to stay grounded in them.

Benefits of Circles – Circles strengthen relationships and build community. They do so through the process they use to deal with specific issues around which a peacemaking circle might be called. As they experience circles, participants begin to development the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual habits of peacemaking. The circle process helps to shift old patterns in how individuals and communities interact, a shift that over time become reflected in interactions outside the circle. Circles:

- build relationships
- foster open dialogue
- encourage values based action
- provide a space to acknowledge responsibility
- facilitate innovative problem solving
- address the deeper causes of conflict
- empower participants and communities
- break through isolation
- bring healing and transformation

When to Use Peacemaking Circles – There are different reasons for bringing people together, and so circles are used for different purposes. Circles may be called for conflict, talking, healing, brainstorming and management, court-related issues, art, support, and family issues. Circles are appropriate in business, family, judicial, social service, artistic and other settings.

Circles are effective in any group settings in which there is a desire for:

- healing rather than coercion
- individual and collective accountability rather than only individual accountability
- democratic, egalitarian and spiritual values
- focusing on the commonalities, instead of the differences, between people
- building community
- individual and collective change and transformation
