

Two candidates declared in first online election for Region 7 representative on HSA Board of Directors

February 13, 2019

Two candidates have been nominated to represent HSA members working in Region 7 on the union's board of directors.

The two candidates in the election are Jas Giddha and Edith MacHattie.

The successful candidate will assume the position of Regional Director for a two-year term at the conclusion of HSA's 2019 annual convention. Candidate statements will be included with voting information sent to members by email or postal mail.

For the first time, online voting is available. All members with a personal email address on file will receive election information by email. For members without an email contact with HSA, a paper ballot will be sent out by the election service provider, Simply Voting, containing information on how to vote online or by mail.
