

Region 7 Director

Jas Giddha is a medical radiation technologist at Surrey Memorial and Peace Arch Hospital, and has been involved in the union since graduating from Thompson Rivers University and starting as a casual in 2012. He acted as an assistant chief steward for the past three years, and is a Member-at-Large, serving on the union's Resolutions Committee. He also acts as an HSA constituency liaison in Surrey-Panorama, explaining health care issues and lobbying for a better system with the local MLA. Outside HSA, he served as the student council president for Thompson Rivers University (TRU) and is a member of the board of directors of the British Columbia Association of Medical Radiation Technologists (BCAMRT).
