BC Federation of Labour Womens Conference

April 4, 2006

"Making Our Voices Heard"

May 1 ... 3, 2006

Coast Victoria Harbourside Hotel & Marina, Victoria

This is a womens conference where labour and community women from around the province will meet to focus on womens economic equality, womens advocacy and childcare issues. The conference will open with a panel discussion with guest speakers who are knowledgeable about these issues. The training sessions will ensure you have the skills to lobby effectively and to develop a lobbying plan. The conference includes a visit to the legislature for question period and an opportunity to lobby an MLA. The BC Federation of Labours Womens Rights Committee is training women to make sure our voices are heard. Women make a difference.

If you know an HSA woman who would be interested in participating in this exciting conference, please encourage her to apply. Application forms are available for download below.

Deadline for registration is April 18, 2006. HSA covers wage loss, registration, transportation, accommodation (shared), meals, and approved dependent care. If you are approved to attend, HSA will notify you by telephone and you may make travel arrangements at that time. HSA will be booking the hotel accommodation.

Dates: May 1 ... 3, 2006

Time: The conference begins 10:30 a.m., Monday, May 1, and ends Wednesday, May 3, 2006 mid-day.

Place: Coast Victoria Harbourside & Marina, 146 Kingston Street, Victoria, BC
