Scholarships and bursaries available for HSA members and their families

January 15, 2007

HSA is offering scholarships and bursaries to all members and their children. We will be awarding ten scholarships for full-time studies, ten bursaries for full-time studies and two aboriginal scholarships.

The criteria and details are set out on the application forms. To obtain a copy please see the HSA website: www.hsabc.org or contact your chief steward.

Completed application forms and transcripts must be mailed to the HSA office and post-marked no later than February 28, 2007. Successful applicants will be notified by letter before April 30, 2007.

In addition, the Madden Memorial Fund is open to members to fund approved labour educational courses in labour relations, occupational health and safety, human rights and leadership skills throughout the year. Professional development courses are not eligible for Madden Memorial funding. The Madden Memorial Fund application form is also available on the HSA website.

If you have any questions, please contact the HSA Education Department at 604-439-0994 ext. 503 or 1-800-663-2017 ext. 503.
