HSA election campaign school

February 6, 2007

Do you want to work to elect representatives in the coming federal election who will support public health care and community social services, and who respect the work that HSA members perform? Have you ever considered running for elected office yourself? If your answer to one or both of these questions is -Yes!" (or even just -Maybe"), then HSAs non-partisan campaign school is for you.

CAMPAIGN SCHOOL DATES:

March 12 & 13, 2007

LOCATION:

HSA Office, 300 - 5118 Joyce Street, Vancouver

This workshop is designed for HSA members with little or no experience in electoral politics. We will focus on preparing for the federal election thats expected in 2007, but will also discuss the 2008 municipal and 2009 provincial elections.

Workshop topics will include:

- â€¢ The nomination process
- â€¢ Nomination campaigns
- â€¢ Overview of election campaigns
- â€¢ Campaign positions (who does what)
- â€¢ How to get involved
- â€¢ How HSA can support members to run or work in elections.

Nomination campaigns for the federal election are already underway. Election planning committees and campaign teams are starting their work. NOW is the time to find out how you can make a difference in your riding.

Interested members should complete the attached application form and return it to the HSA Office (Attention: Karin Herbert). Mail or fax your registration forms as soon as possible, and by Friday March 2, 2007 at the latest (Education Fax: (604) 419-5195 in the Lower Mainland or 1-800-663-6119 for out-of-town). HSA will call you to confirm your registration.

For further information about the campaign school, please contact Carol Riviere, Communications Officer at the HSA office.

DEADLINE: March 2, 2007
