

BULLETIN

OHSAH offers on-line updates for health care workers

April 26, 2007

Concerned about health and safety issues at your workplace?

Sign up to receive the OHSAH (Occupational Health and Safety Agency for Healthcare in BC) e-update.

The current (April 2007) issues includes articles about Latex vs Non-Latex Gloves; Concern over Caviwipes, Pandemic Influenza Update, Technological Innovations in Occupational Health, and Day of Mourning events.

The Health and Safety e-Update is a newsletter delivered directly to your e-mail inbox. Published the last Wednesday of each month (except December), the e-Update gives you tips, news, and website links on health and safety in the healthcare sector. With provincial, national, and international news, the e-Update is designed to inform you of the latest developments relevant to your healthcare workplace.

Click here to register for the OHSAH Health and Safety e-Update.

You can also read the Health and Safety News, OHSAH's newsletter online. It is an information source with up-to-date occupational health and safety news relevant to the healthcare sector. It is produced three times a year.

Click here to read the current and past issues of OHSAH's Health and Safety News.

Type:

Bulletins

Topic:

Occupational health and safety

- Print
- PDF

180 East Columbia
New Westminster, BC V3L 0G7

Website
www.hsabc.org

Telephone 604-517-0994
1-800-663-2017