Saving public health care

September 5, 2008

The BC Health Coalition, Council of Canadians and Parksville Qualicum KAIROS is hosting two public forums on saving public health care.

The events feature best-selling author and activist Holly Dressel, who recently published Who Killed the Queen? The Story of a Community Hospital and How to Fix Health Care. The book investigates the sustainability of Canadian health care and what it offers compared to other countries' health care systems.

Monday Sept. 15 from 7-9 p.m.
BCGEU Union Hall
2994 Douglas Street
Victoria

Tuesday, Sept. 16 from 7-9 p.m.
St. Mark's Anglican Church
