Lower Mainland health authorities issue press release regarding "Consolidation Opportunities"

August 17, 2009

The various Health Authorities in the Lower Mainland (VCHA, PHSA, FHA and PHC) today issued a press release dealing with "Lower Mainland Consolidation Opportunities". The Union was only given the information, at a meeting with various Health Authorities, immediately before the press release was made public. The Union has not yet been provided any specific information in regards any potential impact of "consolidation" on the members of the Union.

The Union will be actively pursuing information from any relevant parties so we may properly represent members of the Union. The Union will of course also provide you with updated information on the process as it becomes available.
