Information session on Community Health Services and Support tentative agreement

HSA and other unions in the Community Bargaining Association are hosting a Telephone Town Hall to provide members with information about the new CBA tentative agreement, as follows:

Wednesday, January 23
7:00 pm, PST

Members of the union bargaining committee will be available to answer your questions regarding the new agreement.

At approximately 7:00 pm on January 23rd, you will receive a phone call that will connect you to the town hall. If you don't receive the call by 7:10 pm, and you wish to participate, please call 1-888-772-5578. If you wish to ensure that HSA has your current home phone number, then please e-mail your full name and phone number to memberlist@hsabc.org.

A comprehensive report summarizing the new agreement is available here.

Details of new language in the tentative agreement is posted here.

HSA is represented in CBA bargaining by Kate Meier, a residential care worker at South Peace Child Development Centre, and Senior Labour Relations Officer Dani Demetlika.

The Community Bargaining Association represents more than 14,000 members, the majority of whom are represented by the BCGEU. Other unions in the bargaining association are HSA, UFCW, HEU, CUPE, and USWA.
