

Funding available for anti-violence training Sept. 16

August 19, 2015

HSA RPNs are encouraged to register for an upcoming one-day conference on violence in the health care sector September 16 presented by ProActive ReSolutions and WorkSafeBC.

The conference, to be held in Vancouver at SFU - Harbour Centre, will focus on strengthening understanding of warning signs and risk factors for a wide range of violent behavior, and learning about best practices. This conference is not presented by HSA. A separate summit on violence is being held by HSA Sept. 10. See details here.

Early bird registration is open until August 26. Information about the conference, and registration information, is available here.

HSA RPNs are eligible for funding to cover registration fees and wage loss under the RPN Professional Development Fund. Information and the application for funding are available here.
