2016 Scholarships and bursaries available for HSA members and their families

December 9, 2015

HSA is offering scholarships and bursaries to all members and their children. Ten scholarships will be awarded for full-time studies, twenty bursaries for full-time studies and four bursaries for part-time studies. Two aboriginal bursaries will be awarded to aboriginal students in BC.

- The criteria and details are set out on the application forms available here.

Completed application forms and transcripts must be emailed to the HSA office no later than Monday, February 29, 2016.

Please note: Email is the preferred method for submitting your application form and transcript, however, if this is not an option for you, they must be post-marked no later than Monday, February 29, 2016. Successful applicants will be notified by letter before the end of May, 2016.

In addition, the Madden Memorial Fund is open to members to fund approved labour educational courses in labour relations, occupational health and safety, human rights and leadership skills throughout the year. Professional development courses are not eligible for Madden Memorial funding. The Madden Memorial Fund application form is also available on the HSA website.

If you have any questions, please contact the HSA Education Department at 604-517-0994 ext. 503 or 1-800-663-2017 ext. 503.
