

BULLETIN

DATE: September 16, 2021

$15,000 of financial support for people impacted by wildfires

The following information is being shared from the Community Savings Credit Union:

To help ease the burden of evacuations and loss, Community Savings Credit Union is providing up to $15,000 of financial support to help union members impacted by wildfires. Community Savings Credit Union will provide $500 in funds directly to individual union members that require assistance.

$15,000 will be distributed through the Kamloops and District Labour Council, North Okanagan Labour Council, and South Okanagan Boundary Labour Council. These labour councils are helping Community Savings Credit Union reach out to their affiliate unions and their membership. Please see the attached form on how to apply for the support.

Community Savings Credit Union is proud to be the largest fully unionized credit union in BC and the primary financial partner for 100+ union organizations. Community Savings Credit Union is a purpose-led co-operative financial institution committed to building a better BC for all workers. Their mission is to financially empower their members and communities with best-in-class personal and business banking services, while supporting economic inclusivity.

If you have experienced financial hardship due to a wildfire, Community Savings Credit Union is providing funds for financial support. To help people deal with the devastation of the wildfires, $500 in funds is being made available to individual union members that have demonstrated a need for assistance.

Community Savings is providing $15,000 in total wildfire funds to support union workers. Successful applicants will be determined by a review of impact and the priority of when the application was received.