Greenhalgh re-elected to HSA Board of Directors

Cheryl Greenhalgh has been re-elected to serve a two-year term as a member of the HSA's Board of Directors, representing HSA members in Region 3 from several worksites spanning from Burnaby Hospital to Eagle Ridge Hospital and SHARE Community Services in the Tricities.

Greenhalgh is a medical radiation technologist at Royal Columbian Hospital in New Westminister, where she serves as a steward, in addition to her role as the union's Secretary Treasurer for the past two years.

She had previously served on the Board of Directors before returning for a second round of service in 2015, and is active in her community of New Westminister, where she serves on several local boards and is involved in local, provincial, and federal politics.
