Madden Memorial Education Fund

Background:

The Madden Memorial Education Fund was established in 1984 following the death of Joe Madden, who was HSA's Assistant Executive Director from 1974 – 1984. Through the Madden Memorial Education Fund, HSA provides financial assistance to members attending external labour education programs. The Fund does not cover professional development courses. Financial reimbursement is limited to the amount of Madden Memorial Funds available.

Instructions:

- Complete application, attach brochure and send to education@hsabc.org
- The Fund will cover registration, transportation, accommodation, meals, dependent care and one day's wage loss to a maximum of $800. HSA will return your application with Part 2: Approval completed. HSA approval must be received to ensure reimbursement of eligibility expenses.
- Payment will be made upon receipt of completed Part 3 Course Completion of the application form.
